STATE CAPITOL NEWS

Epperson's bill doing away with Fourth of July pardons passed the house without opposition.

The senate favors passes for ministers and charitable workers, according to a bill reported out a few days ago.

Every member of the house introduced one or more bills. Two introduced fifty bills each. Two introduced only one each.

If the house judiciary committee has its way women will not be compelled to serve on juries. A minority report will be submitted and different action may be taken when the bill is reported.

The banking bill went through the house without any particular trouble. After it becomes a law banks and bankers will be more closely looked after than they have been in the past and it will not be so easy for inexperienced persons to get into the banking business.

Three dollars per week is the tuition rate fixed for those who would go from a country district to a high school. At first it was intended to fix the rate at the actual cost of instruction but it was pointed out that this might open the way for a lot of litigation, so the bill was changed.

One proposed statute requires people who contemplate marriage to apply for a marriage license fifteen days prior to the wedding day. The judge is then to notify parents or guardians by registered mail. This will put a crimp in the numerous weddings coming from Sioux City to this "Gretna Green."

If a measure now being considered becomes a law school teachers will have to be careful about jumping their contracts in the future. The bill provides that a teacher who gives up her place without complying with certain formalities may lose her certificate for the balance of the year. The house favors the bill.

The Publisher's Responsibility

Much demoralizing reading is printed on the plea that "the public wants it." A mother might as excusably give her child the glistening arsenic for which it cries. The publisher bears a responsibility to society like that of the preacher or the teacher. This, at any rate, is the view of the publishers of The Youth's Companion. From its first issue to the present it has been a constant force for character building. And with all that it has been so wisely edited that no publication exists of more varied charm, more inexhaustible and refreshing sources of interest.

The 52 issues of the coming year will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Only $2.50 for an amount of reading equal to thirty-five volumes of fiction, humor, etc.

Harvester Company Brands Story False

DURING the past month, reports have come to us that at farmers' meetings charges have been made, sometimes directly and sometimes indirectly, that this Company has adopted a policy of refusing to supply repair parts for old machines in order to compel the purchase of new ones. This statement is absolutely false. Such a policy has never been considered by this Company nor suggested to it.

Ordinarily we ignore such reports, because we have learned that any large company, no matter how fair and high principled, is subject at all times to unjust criticism. The facts are this Company has always recognized the importance of repair service and has used every effort to make IHC service the best. We believe we can truthfully say that the repair service furnished wherever this Company's goods are sold is equal if not superior to that furnished on any manufactured line.

We call attention to the fact that machinery "Fix-up Weeks," instead of being something new and originated by the farmers in 1921, as some seem to think, were really an outgrowth of the movement started by manufacturers and dealers' associations in connection with the Council of National Defense as a war conservation measure. Perhaps no other agency has done so much to promote "National Repair Weeks" as this Company.

The farmer needs machines which will be efficient and economical. If his old machine can be repaired so as to render efficient and economical service, he would be foolish to purchase new ones. Whether the farmer utilizes and repairs his old machine or buys new ones is a question for him to determine. But in making his decision, we give to every farmer who owns any IHC machines the assurance that a full stock of repair parts will always be provided by this Company.

Today, our repair stocks on the territory available for the farmers are 21 per cent greater than ever before at this time of the year. An average of a quarter million pounds of repairs are shipped from IHC factories for every working day in the year. Thirty million dollars' worth of repair parts are now ready, as insurance for the farmer when he needs this service.

In every International Harvester Works manufacturing orders call for repair parts first and even when furnishing them has meant cutting down production of new machines for which we had orders, repairs have always had preference.

At every one of our 91 branch houses trained men are on duty to see that all orders are filled and shipped promptly. Thousands of dealers scattered everywhere with an assortment of repairs in stock are always ready and willing to render every assistance.

This service which this Company has rendered through the years to those who have purchased its machines has been a matter of great pride to the Company, and is the foundation of the cordial good-will existing between it and its customers.

We feel it is due the Company and those who have purchased its machines that we give the widest publicity to the fact that this service of repairs will be maintained and improved, and that any charges to the contrary are untrue.

Transfer? A fat chance!

I READ a story.
ABOUT A fellow.
WHO SLIPPED.
ON AN icy hill.
AND STARTED to slide.
AND TRIPPED up.
A FAT lady.
WHO SAT on him.
AND RODE down hill.
TO THE foot.
AND THEN he wheezed.
"MADAM, YOU'LL have
TO GET off here.
THIS IS as far
AS I go."
SO WHEN a new clerk.
WHO DIDN'T know.
MY REGULAR smoke.
TRIED TO sell me.

SOME OTHER kind.
OF CIGARETTE.
I REMEMBERED that yarn.
AND TOLD the clerk.
JUST WHERE to get off.
OTHER KINDS will burn.
AND GIVE off smoke.
I'LL ADMIT that much.
BUT THAT'S as far.
AS I'LL go.
THERE'S ONLY one kind.
OF CIGARETTE.
THAT CAN, and will, and does.
REALLY "SATISFY."

OTHER cigarettes may please your taste for a time—but that's as far as they go. With finer tobaccos—both Turkish and Domestic—and with finer blending—Chesterfields give you the fullest possible cigarette enjoyment. They always satisfy. It's the blend—and it can't be copied.
